MATINEE MOVIE AFTERNOON HOLLYWOOD CINEMA – THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS

St Georges Road, Avondale
Sunday 11th July at 3pm

Reminisce the afternoons when you used to go to your local picture theatre to see the latest Western Movies, with classic cartoons and shorts before the main feature. The Hollywood theatre in Avondale is one of the last of the original suburban picture theatres still operating. This melodramatic Western, The Last of the Mohicans, is based on the famous novel by James Fenimore Cooper and stars Daniel Day Lewis. The Hollywood theatre usually includes classic shorts from the past.
Cost: $15 pp - pay direct at the ticket booth.
Plenty of Sunday parking in surrounding streets. Suggest we meet in front of the entrance at 2.30-2.45pm. Please let me know as soon as practicable if you are attending. Same day notification is ok.

13th NZ SCULPTURE ON SHORE EXHIBITION

Fort Takapuna, Devonport

Sunday 7th November 2021

After missing a year due to Covid, this popular sculpture exhibition is back. This is the country's largest sculpture exhibition with more than 100 works by well-known and emerging New Zealand artists from all over New Zealand. Many of the sculptors take inspiration from NZ Sculpture OnShore's site, with its glorious 180-degree views of the Hauraki Gulf and with Rangitoto as a totem backdrop. From hold-in-your hand intimate to super-sized pieces, you can count on an inspiring experience and good day out.

Meeting place and time to be advised. Car parking $5.

There is plenty of parking on site at the event organised and run by Devonport Rotary. Free car parking is available at Narrow Neck Beach reserve, with a two-minute stroll to the event at O Peretu Fort Takapuna. The Officers Mess Café will be open daily from 10am – 4.30pm serving delicious morning and afternoon teas and lunch.
